PAC UK Training Event

16th November 2017

5—8pm

School of Education—KHEBLG16

PAC-UK exists to improve the lives of families and individuals affected by adoption and other forms of permanence by providing access to a range of individually tailored services and appropriate support depending on need. They are currently working on a DfE project providing free training for teachers and early years practitioners regarding the impact that early childhood trauma, attachment and loss have on learning, and how teachers are able to actively improve educational engagement with these children. Kingston University are holding an evening session for PAC UK training for the EYITT Alumni and you are warmly invited to join us.

If you are interested in this and to book your place on the PAC UK training session please contact:

Michelle Griffiths at eyt@kingston.ac.uk or on 02084175156

International Workshop

The International Workshop is taking place on the 16th March 2018 where we will be sharing the resources, tools and strategies developed to support toddlers' wellbeing.

Please contact Amanda Chase at: A.Chase@sgul.kingston.ac.uk if you would like more information and are interested in attending the event.

Local Workshop

Achieving for Children are holding a dissemination event on the ToWe project on the 9th November 2017. Please contact Alison McGee at alison.mcgee@achievingforchildren.org.uk

New PGCE in Early Years—Birth to Five Years with Early Years Teacher Status

The EYITT programme is becoming part of the PGCE programme at Kingston University from September 2017. Trainees will undertake two masters level modules:

- The Reflective Teacher and Perspectives on Policy,
- Practice and Professionalism

Studying alongside the PGCE QTS trainees.

Early Years Workforce Strategy

The Early Years Workforce Strategy was published in March 2017. It made some interesting points relating to EYITT and EYTS. Have a look at pages: 5 and 14

'consulting on allowing those with Early Years Teacher Status (EYTS), and its predecessor Early Years Professional Status (EYPS), to lead nursery and reception classes in maintained schools' (2017:5).
